Top tips for colour success

Our Senior Project Manager, Kate Finlay shares her top three tips for colour success:

1. One colour or two? A single colour makes your chosen shade the star of the show while a combination of two shows off the detail of a weave pattern.
2. Our three 'Base' shades work well with another colour for easy colour selection.
3. A border in a contrasting colour really frames a piece.

Colour matching service

If you can't find the perfect match in our palette of 75 colours, we can match to any Pantone colour or fabric swatch.

Weave

Hand weaving is a true craft and our weaver still surprises us with what can be created on the loom. For 2022 we are looking forward to introducing many stunning designs to our collection. Your choice of weave completely changes the look and feel of a cashmere throw or blanket. Smoother weaves, such as our bestseller Twill, make colour the star of the show. By contrast, Cortland (right) in two colours has a strong geometric feel.

New for 2022!

Design note

Director and Founder Gill Weir shares considerations when choosing the size of your throw or blanket.

1. Our standard throw size is 130 x 180cm, perfect for a chair or sofa. Last year we introduced a larger throw (130 x 220cm) which has been very popular. We are including this size across our range for 2022.

2. Most of our looms are just under 3 metres wide so we can create blankets for the biggest beds!

3. Do you want your throw to cover the duvet or drop to the floor? Our team is always on hand to advise so do get in touch.

100% Cashmere

The ultimate luxury, pure cashmere is cloud soft and indulgent.

50% Cashmere & 50% Merino Lambswool New for 2022!

The high cashmere content blended with the softest merino lambswool makes this blend a super soft option. For 2022 we are delighted to offer our bespoke throws and blankets in this beautiful blend.

"The blanket is absolutely beautiful, thank you so much"
- Olivia von Halle

Luxury Cashmere Blend

A silky blend of 40% cashmere and 60% bamboo. The bamboo adds a gorgeous shimmer which contrasts beautifully with the matte cashmere and brings the detail of the weave to life.

With so many options, creating a bespoke throw or blanket might seem a little daunting. Our experienced team is ready to help and advise every step of the way.

Finishing touches

The finish of a throw or blanket definitely shouldn't be an afterthought. The choice of finish will completely change the look of the piece. For a relaxed feel choose one of our hand knotted tassel designs. Hand crafted with care and precision, our borders are available in pure cashmere or silk, or a blend of cashmere and merino lambswool. A border acts as a beautiful finish to a piece, like a frame to a picture.

New for 2022!

As an alternative to a border or tassel, we are introducing a simple folded hem finish (above). The folded hem was specially produced for a bespoke project. It looked so stunning we just had to add it to our choice of finishes.

Trends for 2022

1. Sustainable luxury

2022 will see an increasing desire for beautiful products that are produced sustainably, with a slow ethos, the antithesis of mass production. The focus will be on handmade items that will last a lifetime.

Our specialist cashmere agent, Tara Huxley-Blythe, is always happy to meet our London-based clients to introduce our range and discuss projects.

Tara lives and breathes high end interiors and shares her insights for 2022...

2. Blue bedrooms

Dulux named 'Bright Skies,' a light and airy blue, as its Colour of the Year 2022. The shade promotes tranquility and restfulness, the perfect choice for a bedroom

3. Bring the outside in

Bringing the natural world inside: green and natural tones that reflect plants, trees, wood and terracotta. Think silvery green, sage green, warm neutrals and terracotta for a calming and grounding feel. On trend textures will reflect nature in our homes, think Basket and Honeycomb weaves.

Luxuriously soft, finely woven pure cashmere oversize wraps, light weight and oh-so-warm. Available in a choice of 75 colours, plain or ombré.

Handwoven perfection

Cashmere is one of the softest, warmest and rarest natural fibres in the world. These precious fibres are carefully spun into yarn which is hand dyed in a rainbow of colours, hand woven on wooden looms and hand finished by our master weavers using traditional methods.

Sustainable luxury

No electricity is used during the spinning, dyeing and weaving process; this is the ultimate in bespoke and sustainable craftsmanship.

High in the Upper Mustang region of Nepal where the mountain goats are few in numbers and live at high altitude, temperatures can drop to -15°C. In these conditions the cashmere fibres on the goat grow warmer and softer. The cashmere is collected between March and July when the hair is brushed without harming the animals, removing the dense coarse top layer to reveal the naturally soft and delicate layer beneath.
